Mrs. Thelma Parker Smart, One of Hawaii's Belles, Reported to Be Dying in San Francisco

Mrs. Thelma Parker Smart, Hawaiian heiress, who is reported to be dying on the coast.

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Thelma Parker Smart is very low and news of her death may be looked for at any time. Yesterday, at her special request, the Hawaiian singers who have been presenting "A Night in Hawaii" at the Pantages theater, came to her room and, grouped around her bed, rendered a number of the songs of Hawaii.

JEFF McCARN IS AT LAST WINNER IN PROSECUTION

U. S. District Attorney Increases
"Batting Average" Without Desire to Do So

United States District Attorney Jeff McCarn secured his initial conviction this morning when a jury in the federal court brought in a verdict of guilty in the case of Nicholas Trilli, an enlisted man stationed at Schofield Barracks, and Maria Lucia Melendrez, a habitue of Twiliet, who were indicted by the federal grand jury at its last session on a charge of having committed a statutory offense.

It took the jury about 10 minutes to agree upon a verdict. The case was a hard-fought one lasting nearly three days. The district attorney waxed personal during his final address to the jury outlining the duties of his office in an unusually emphatic manner.

"If I were to ask for a conviction at the hands of this jury because I thought it would increase my batting average as district attorney, then I would deserve nothing more than to be thrown out of the window," said Mr. McCarn.

Judge Sanford D. Dole ruled that Nicholas and Maria each serve four months in Oahu prison and pay the costs of the case.

Wailae, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday evening at Lili-uealani school. As there was no meeting in October there will be two months' business to consider. All residents of the district are invited.

OPINION FROM WEAVER REFUSED BY SUPERVISORS

With the moral support of the board of supervisors City and County Clerk David Kalaokalani today deliberately rejected the advice of Deputy City and County Attorney P. L. Weaver rather than give a dance hall permit to Filipinos whom he feels certain are still seeking to evade the law and continue to conduct their notorious establishment.

With a cleverly worded application, stating that the "hop" was to be given for sweet charity's sake, the entire proceeds to go to the Leahi home, a Filipino giving the name of Panganiban appeared at Kalaokalani's office this morning asking for another temporary permit for one night only, after the manner in which these formerly were obtained for the halls at King and Smith streets and similar places.

Still rather doubtful of his authority in the matter, the clerk referred the question to the city and county attorney's office, with the result that Weaver sent back a written opinion advising him to issue the license on the ground that under a strict interpretation of the statute the clerk has no alternative so long as the application appears to be bona fide. He held that in the present instance the application appeared without a flaw.

Then Kalaokalani hit upon a clever scheme. "If you will bring in a known representative of the Leahi home," he informed Panganiban, "and that representative will vouch for the dance and its charitable purpose I'll issue the permit."

This occurred early this morning but at a late hour today Panganiban had not returned with an accredited official of the Leahi home. Kalaokalani doesn't think he will, and it is quite likely that the dance scheduled to be held by the Filipino and his friends at Nottley hall this evening will not take place.

HAWAIIAN GIRL HOLDS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Harriet Kamekapolei Kahiliokalani Dwight celebrated the fourth anniversary of her birth last Sunday at the residence of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Dwight, in Desha lane.

The tables were bedecked with Hawaiian delicacies, the lanai being decorated with flags and lilua and mailleis, the same being served to the guests. Many prominent residents of Honolulu were invited to the affair.

TIGERS PRACTISE IN MORNING

The Venice Tigers switched their schedule and went out for a morning instead of an afternoon practise at Athletic park. The team will practise tomorrow afternoon at Moiliili field.
